

Travel: 5 of the best... PLACES TO SLEEP UNDER THE STARS

With neverending skies and perfect astral viewing conditions, you'll want to make a night of it at these stellar escapes. By

FRANCESCA SYZ

NKWICHI LODGE Lake Malawi, Mozambique

There are few lovelier spots in the world than the impossibly velvety Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi. Add to the mix the opportunity for a star-viewing experience at off-grid Nkwichi Lodge and you have the makings of a perfect night. Guests can spend the night in a 'Star Bed' on a rock island near the shore or a deserted beach, where staff will prepare a gourmet feast before leaving you to gaze at the celestial skies, shrouded in a floaty mosquito net. Insider tip: Go on a snorkel safari – it may look like the sea but it's freshwater, so there's no salty sting. From $330; nkwichi.com

THE EDIT

WHAT TO PACK

